

Min-Hui, Liao Taiwan

Language: Mandarin / Taiwanese / English

Hobbies: Dancing, cooking and also love traveling

Favourite person: Ang Lee

When I was a child, my dream job was: To be a mayor of Taichung city

"I always believe some things in life really worth fighting for, especially when it concerns your life."

I want to go to Prague -Europe's most beautiful cities to see the greatest ancient castle buildings with

The Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance, and other characteristics of architectural style through my eyes.

Rafael Viola Brazil

Language: English, a bit of Spanish, a bit of German

Hobbies: Playing Games, collect stuff

Favourite person: J.R.R. Tolkien

When I was child, my dream job was: Architect

"Friendship is unnecessary, like philosophy, like art. It has no survival value; rather it is one of those things that give value to survival."

I guess a thing I want to experience is to eat a lot of new foods.

Li Dongying China

Language: English, Mandarin, Korean, Japanese

Hobbies: Travelling, watching Japanese drama

Favourite person: My parents

When I was a child, my dream job was: Psychiatrist

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

I want to experience the different cultures and have valuable interactions with people from all walks of life.

Wan Noor Faradawina Wan Jamaluddin

Malaysia

Language: English and Malay (the most fluent)

Hobbies: Drawing and reading

Favourite person: I would say that I personally admire my dad.

When I was a child, my dream job was: to be a businesswoman

"Do your own thinking independently. Be the chess player, not the chess piece."

I'm not like any other Malay girl in Malaysia. I don't want to study, I want to learn and the way I want to learn things are very different.

Rodrigo Alonso Velazquez Garcia

Mexico

Language: English, Spanish

Hobbies: Learning new things, currently learning how to play piano, flute and violin, reading and discovering these worlds hidden in books

Favourite person: My parents and my grandmother

When I was a child, my dream job was: I wanted to be like Tony Stark (Iron Man), engineer, doctor, psychologist, soccer player

"Smile, strive, be happy and help. Never forget to enjoy life." "Carpe Diem"

I don't know why but since my childhood had the illusion of knowing Czech Republic, really I don't know where this idea was born, but now I feel happy that my first trip outside of my country will be to the Czech Republic.

EnasKamar

Egypt

Language: English, Arabic, Basic French (It used to be better, I will re-learn it)

Hobbies: Drawing, Music (listening, and learning), hiking, traveling, dancing.

Favourite person: My sister

When I was a child, my dream job was: To be an Independent Artist

"When you have to take a stand, you may find yourself standing alone, But you are standing for something, and that's what counts."

Art is the most sacred, and holly thing in my life, especially music.

I'm loyal to my friends, family, my ideology, never forget those who stood by me.

I'm open minded, I accept everyone, and everything, except evil and hurting others.

Zeynep Ece Çağlar

Turkey

Language: English, German

Hobbies: Scuba diving, sailing, skiing, basketball-high school team, Pilates, playing melodic-primary school's choir, trekking, taking nature photos, travelling, salsa, tap-dance, exploring new cultures and meeting new friends, writing, biking, reading blogs, cooking, joining to cinema festivals

When I was child, my dream job was: To be an astronaut

"Study to be happy!"

I want to make a difference and also the difference makes me change!

